Title: “God Is...Exploring the Many Sides of God”

Text: Various Passages of Scriptures

Preaching:

Pastor of Student Ministries

God Is...

1. God is extraordinary. (Isaiah 40:12-18)
2. God is ordinary. (John 14:1-11)
3. God is involved. (Judges 10:6-16)
4. God is set apart. (Isaiah 6:1-8)

Personal Study/Application Questions:

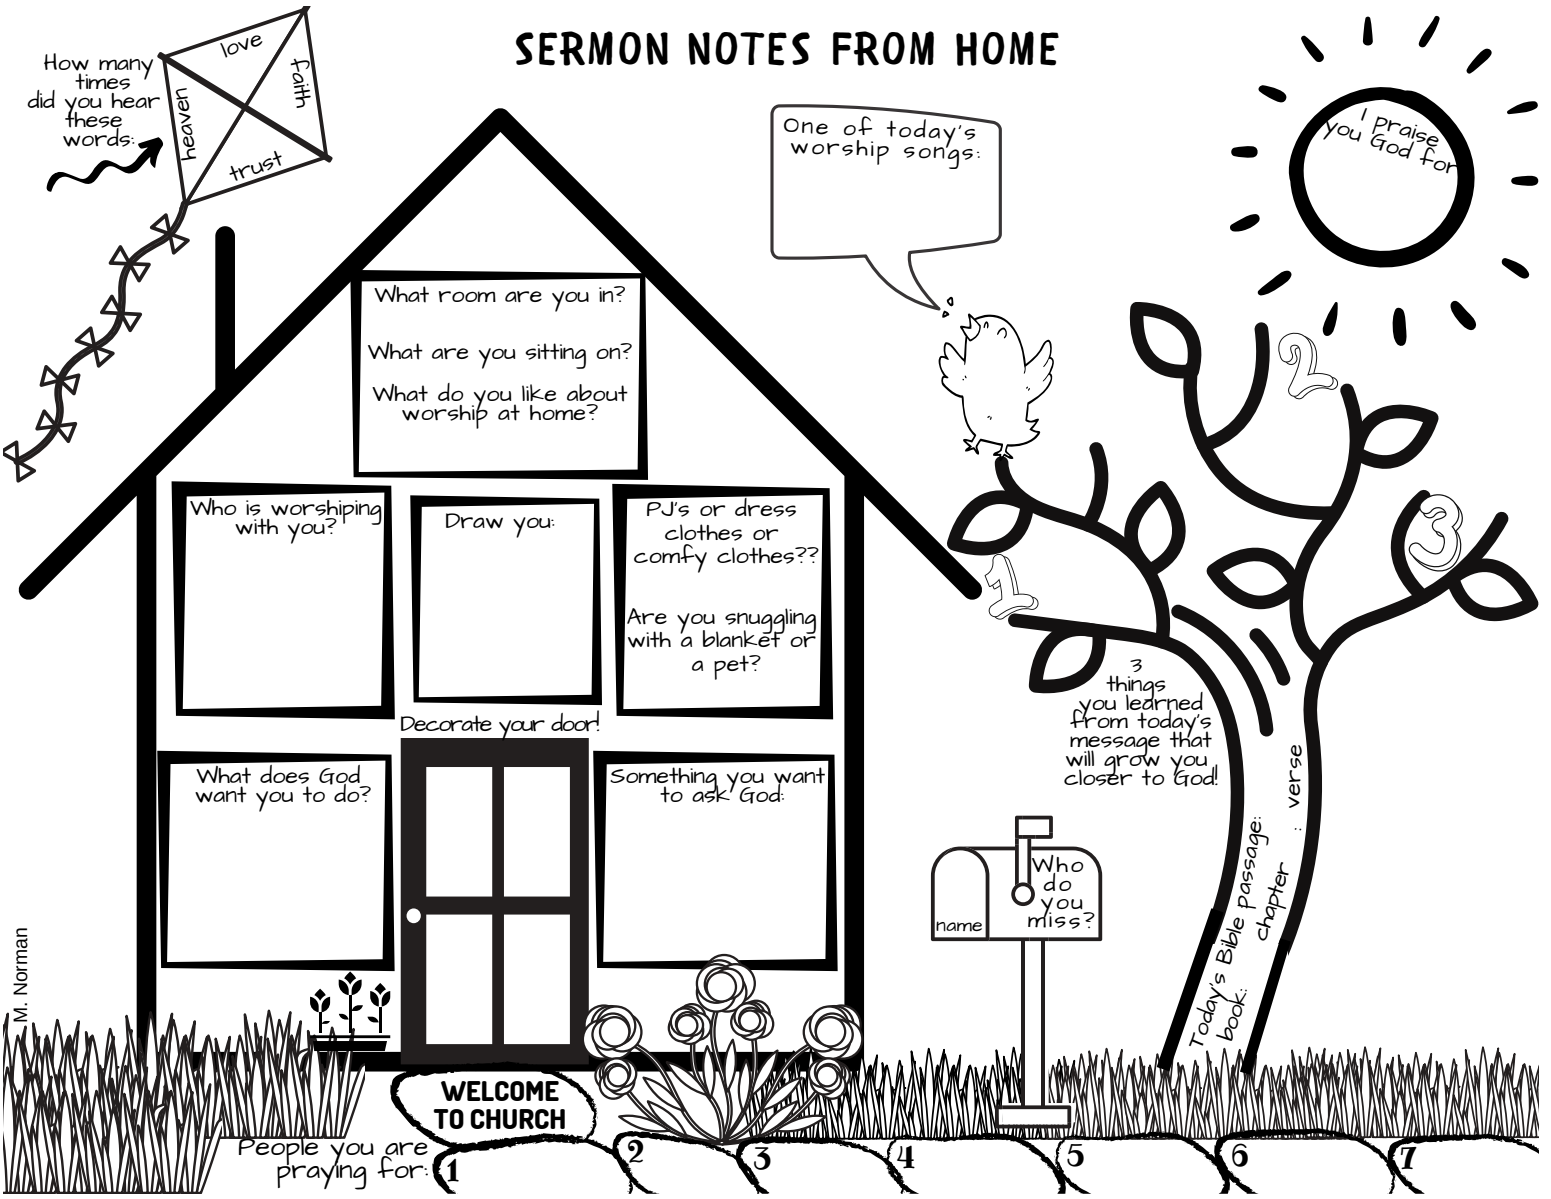

We often form our own image of who we think God is, even if it is not intentional. If you were to take an honest assessment of yourself, what picture of God do you most often tend to have? What's right about that picture? What's wrong with that picture?

Read Isaiah 40:12-18. Spend some time reflecting on the extraordinary nature of God. Make a list of ways that God is far greater than our imagination. Why is it important that God is greater than our imagination? Is the thought, of not knowing God fully, unsettling or gives you a sense of uneasiness?

Read John 14:1-11. We often picture God as something far greater than we can put words to, yet He is closer than we realize. Philip and Thomas missed this in their interaction with Jesus. How was God closer than the disciples thought? How is Jesus closer than you realize?

Read Judges 10:6-18. The Israelites were in a constant state of forsaking God, worshiping idols, being conquered, repenting and then being restored. We see in this passage that God is hurt by the cycle of rejection. Does God's response surprise you? What emotions do you sense in God's response? What do these emotions tell us about God? How does this picture of God make you feel? Why do you think God is affected when He is rejected?
