Sermon Series: Conversations with God

Title: The Important 'WHO' of Prayer

Text: Isaiah 6:1-8

Pastor Perry Kallis

BIG IDEA: True prayer is not mostly about getting what I want, but rather, prayer is mostly about the ONE to whom I pray.

- 1) We pray to a God who is eternal. (vs. 1)
- 2) We pray to a God who is glorious. (vs. 1-3)
- 3) We pray to a God who is holy. (vs. 2-4)
- 4) We pray to a God who is personal. (vs. 5-8)

- Moving from humble brokenness to joyful, obedient mission should be the outcome of my personal prayer life.
- Acknowledging the holiness of God leads to greater delight in and service to Him.

Personal Study/Application Questions:

- Since I pray to an eternal God, how could I intentionally connect more of my prayer requests to things that have eternal value?
- In order to avoid coming to prayer too casually, begin your prayer times this week with expressions of humble praise for God's glory and majesty.
- Believers are assured in scripture that someday we will see God "face to face" in all His majesty. Ask yourself how your prayer life and your daily actions can prepare you now for that glorious day.
- Read 1 John 4:9-12 and think about how that passage connects my worship of God to my love for other people. Think of one person in your life who might be hard to love and ask God to help you do so with more joy.
