Sermon Series: Our True Identity: The Book of Ephesians

Title: *God's Captivatingly, Fascinating Forgiveness

Text: Ephesians 1:7-10

Pastor Perry Kallis

BIG IDEA: Believers should be so fascinated by the treasure of God's redemption of our souls that we will live out the purposes for which He saved us.

(Romans 6:23 & 3:23 / 1 Corinthians 6:11 / Colossians 1:14 / Ephesians 1:4 / 2 Corinthians 5:18)

Five Life-changing Ingredients of My Remarkable Redemption:

Ingredient 1: The redeemer of this redemption.
(Ephesians 1:6)

Ingredient 2: The redeemed of this redemption.
(Ephesians 2:1-3)

Ingredient 3: The ransom of this redemption.
(Ephesians 1:7a / 1 Peter 1:18)

Ingredient 4: The result of this redemption.
(Ephesians 1:7b-8)

Ingredient 5: The reason for this redemption.
(Ephesians 1:9-10)

My present and future, fascinating, forgiveness in Christ, means I can practice for eternity now.

Personal Application – Study Questions:

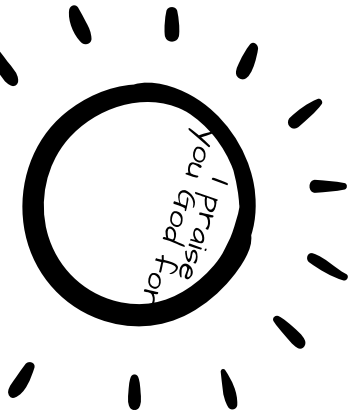

- Read 1 Peter 1:18 and consider where you could be today were it not for that grace. Then praise God in prayer for where you are today.
- Think about an example in your walk with God where he “lavished” His grace on you, and how that made you more wise to serve Him.
- In light of God's eternal purposes, what are some things I can do, say, or think this week – that could reflect well on God both here on earth and for all eternity?
