Sermon Series: Our True Identity:
The Book of Ephesians

Title: Paul's Purposeful Prayer List

Text: Ephesians 1:15-19

Pastor Perry Kallis

My most effective prayers will always be those I ask my Heavenly Father for something He already wants for me.

BIG IDEA: Godly prayers come from hearts that deeply desire more of God Himself rather than wanting more from God for myself.

How can I pray for others in ways that reflect what God already wants for them?

1) I should pray that you would know God personally. (vs. 17)

(Ephesians 1:17 / 1 Corinthians 2:14 / Ephesians 1:13 / John 17:3 / Philippians 3:10)

2) I should pray that you would know God purposefully. (vs. 18)

3) I should pray that you would know God powerfully. (vs. 19-20)

God always transforms His children who ask for the stuff that really lasts.

Personal Application – Study Questions:

Think about your last couple of times of personal prayer. Were most of your requests about what you wanted, or did you give thought to God's purposes in your request?

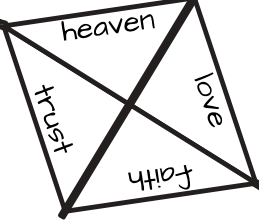

Write down some personal attributes of God for which you are most grateful for at this time in your life.

What are two practical ways I could be a better "conduit" for God's power and good news in the week ahead?

Write a prayer for people in your earthly or heavenly family that reflect what you already know God wants for them. Then pray it to our Lord.
